Come Ride With Us!

April 2024 Volume 2 Issue 4

Greetings Chapter S / Newberry Riders,

Hello Newberry Riders,

The pollen is in the air. That means warm weather is just around the corner. That means great riding weather.

On March 22nd thru 24th the weather was not the greatest but the "Around the State ride " was great. Yeah we hit rain but we had the right gear. It was one of my best rides. There is already talk about another multi day trip. Be on the look out for info and get involved.

The Chapter has some good things coming up this month. I hope each and everyone of you members will be there.

Check out the rest of the Bulletin and get involved. Chapter S is doing things, the District is doing things. Are you?

See you very soon.

How much do I love my grandchildren and riding my motorcycle? A lot. Jon and I left the house at 6 am March 30th and rode to Clinton to Licking Good Donuts. Picked up donuts for the grandkids and watched the sunrise on the ride home. Good start for the day. Michael Ammons

On March 10th our working members were blessed with a beautiful sunny Sunday and were able to get a little last minute ride in. Just a short 60 mile ride but they were happy to be on their bikes.

March 16th Lunch Gathering was attended by 11 members. Marilyn and Russell won the 5-/25/25. I went over the rides and South Carolina rally. We set up the after meeting ride and discussed plans to go to the Blessing of the Bikes the next day in Greenwood. If not raining next month the chapter will gather at Pork in the Park with more details to come.

Carla, Michael, Russell and George Portela did a short hour ride to Chapin then over to Billy Dreher Island and rode through to see Volkswagen camper vans having a gathering and campout. I rode for another hour after dropping Carla off.

Michael Ammons

George and I had a great ride to lunch on Thursday 14 March. We met at the parking lot behind Hardee's & went down Hwy 121 to Hwy 34 at Silverstreet. We ran that up to Hwy 702, to 246 towards Coronaca with a pit stop for this old guy. Then we continued on Hwy 246 to Hodges. From there Hwy 185 to Hwy 203 into Abbeville & had a great lunch and good relaxing conversation at Two Brews. We took Hwy 72 back to Greenwood, then Hwy 221 around Greenwood to Hwy 34 towards Ninety Six & followed 34 to Chappells at Hwy 39. We parted ways there. George stayed on Hwy 34 heading towards Newberry then Prosperity and home. I turned onto 39 and headed for Saluda and home. A great day to be on the bikes, I logged 142 miles with perfect weather. I hadn't been on mine since January, but I'm feeling better and plan to ride more. I would love to have more join us for these during the week rides.

Rides

March 17 was the Blessing of the Bikes in Greenwood. The gathering point was Hobby Lobby Parking Lot. 709 bikes left out and drove through Downtown to a field in the outer parts of Greenwood.

Membership in Newberry Riders/Chapter S

The following chapter policies will be put in place as of the publication of this bulletin.

Existing Members:

Any member whose membership in the EWMA Organization expires, will have a one month grace period to renew their membership to stay in good standing with the organization and Chapter. After the grace period if the member has not renewed their membership in the organization then they will no longer be entitled to the benefits of membership in the organization or chapter events, rides, mailing or etc..

Visitors and/or prospective new members:

Visitors or potential new members for the purpose of checking out the organization and/or Chapter to join are always welcome. Our organization and Chapter is not a secret society and welcome visitors. If you have a family member or friend that is visiting you and want to come to an event, please bring them. Visitors are welcome to come to rallies; they will have to pay a higher entry fee. For someone who is wanting to participate in a number of events, rides, or other things for the purpose of possibly joining will have a two month recruitment period. At the end of that period they will have to decide if they want to become a member or it's not for them.

These policies are being put in place to be fair to those of us that pay for membership to be in the organization. Again, we want to see visitors and possibly new members.

Thank you.
Michael Ammons, Newberry Riders/Chapter S Director

Florida District Rally March 14-16, 2024

Chapter S Members, Jon & Donna and Buddy & Kim attended the Florida Rally in Gainesville with several other South Carolina EWMA Members and had a great time. Jon and Buddy won First Place Chapter in their costume contest as “Ernest T” and “Barney” (throwing rocks and chasing the culprit). Buddy got to eat! Kim found out the difference between sugar & Sweet & Low from Roy. Mike Melton explained our Headquarters website. Wild times happen with friends in Florida! Who could imagine Jon riding a Harley!
