Come Ride With Us!

Eagle Wings Motorcycle Association - South Carolina Chapter S

February 2026 Volume 4 Issue 2

Hello Everyone,

It's hard to believe another year has come and gone. I hope everyone had a great Christmas.

I hope 2026 is good to everyone. We will not have a supper ride this month since we are doing a Polar Bear Ride on January 1st, but the February Supper Ride will be to the Mayberry Diner, Cross Hill, SC on February 3rd at 6:00 p.m. (waiting on confirmation, subject to weather conditions).

I want everyone to help plan things for either chapter rides, picnics, bingo, or a social event. I don't ride the bike much but Jon has volunteered to help get rides up for us. But if you have anything you want the chapter to do please let me or Kim know and we can hopefully make it happen.

I hope the New Year is the Best for y'all.

Thanks,

Donna Horning

Polar Bear Ride

A large group of EWMA SC Members from 5 different chapters came together on New Year's Day at Trotter's Restaurant to continue our tradition of starting the year off right by riding those beautiful bikes. Some came in cars, but they came and we were glad to see them all!

Chapter S Monthly Gathering

On January 17th twelve members and one guest, Rich Kitko shared delicious food and fine fellowship at Roma's in Prosperity.

January's Cold Continues

Sleet on January 25th and Snow on January 31st. The ice had not melted in the shady spots before the snow came. With lows in the teens at night, we hope that everyone stays safe and warm.

Words from the Editor:

What a long cold January it's been. Buddy & I have been couped up in the house like a bunch of old hens and we're starting to get a bit of "cabin fever". I've kept myself busy sewing & working on patriotic quilts for the 2026 Birthday of America while Buddy has tried to keep warm (with the gas logs & heating units cranked up!). We can't wait for the numerous upcoming riding events planned. Poor bike thinks it's been forgotten. Stay warm and safe and I hope to see you at the next Chapter S Event.
